Dear Friends of PBPF

In our last newsletter, we presented the PB Archival Project. We are happy to let you know that we have now contracted an excellent Indian firm to convert PB's writings to a searchable digital format for online access and further print publications. We are projecting a cost of $80,000 over the next year to complete the digital conversion of this considerable amount of valuable material. Please go to: paulbrunton.org/archiving.php for more information on this project.

Other accomplishments this past year include:

ARCHIVING Volunteers are preserving Paul Brunton's legacy by assembling an inventory, scanning, converting to pdfs, and proofing scanned originals. Future plans consist of providing housing for the archived material.

OUTREACH We are moving into the world of spiritual publications to bring PB's ideas to the attention of more readers. Small advertisements have been placed in a number of magazines. We are drawing attention to the PBPF website by featuring the Christopher Reeve audio files and the online Notebooks of Paul Brunton.

PRISON PROJECT Our excellent volunteers have now sent over 30,000 free copies of What Is Karma? to prisoners throughout the United States.

PUBLICATIONS PB's early books will be re-published over the next few years. The Wisdom of the Overself and The Hidden Teaching Beyond Yoga, with all PB's corrections, new introductions and appendices, are nearly ready to print. Work is now starting on The Quest of the Overself. Final revision of the The Short Path to Enlightenment manuscript has been completed, and it will be published in 2014.

WEBSITE We converted and posted the Christopher Reeve audio files as well as started emailing in-depth PB eTeachings on core topics every other week. Be sure to visit our website, paulbrunton.org and check the "What's Happening" section for links to these offerings, including detailed information on the Archival Project. Also, don't miss the beautiful photos and daily quotes on our new PBPF Facebook page.

Some sad news—Martha Cohen, who had been serving as PBPF President, had to resign due to a life-threatening illness. We ask for your prayers and offering of healing light from your heart to Martha.

PB'S WORK is a beacon of light to all of us throughout the world. We are striving to accomplish our mission of making PB's work accessible to you and preserving his large contribution to the world's wisdom. With your help we will make that happen.

Please consider making a contribution before year-end. Your tax deductible contributions enable the PBPF to do the work of preserving, publishing, and creating an internet source for the writings of Paul Brunton. Our twelve-member Board is comprised of volunteers; 100 percent of your donation goes to support our projects.

Your contribution is deeply appreciated.

Cleta J. Rudolph,
Board Chair and President
