The urgent desires, the dislikes, misunderstandings, coldnesses and selfishness which have marked my dealings with many of my fellows collapse into the abyss of 'nothingness. An untellable peace falls upon me and I know now that there is nothing further that I shall ask from life.

"Nothing but spiritual understanding between one nation and another, and between rich and poor, will produce goodwill and thus bring real peace and prosperity."

His Holiness rests his arm a little more heavily upon his staff. "There is still God," he remarks gently. "God has nothing but love towards mankind. There is an indwelling divine soul in man which, in the end, must bring him back to God."

Yet the starry truths which I learn may be translated into the language of earth, and the effort will not be a vain one. So I seek, all too roughly, to bring back some memorials of the wonderful archaic world which stretches out, untracked and unpatented, behind the human mind.

The PBF Launches Its Own YouTube Channel

Highlights from PB's First Journey to India

In the 1930s, PB's A Search in Secret India changed the fabric of Western spirituality with his accounts of profound interactions with two of the greatest spiritual figures of modern India—Sri Shankaracharya and Ramana Maharshi. You can now hear these moving narratives in three videos produced by PBF Board Member Louis Damiani. Go to www.YouTube.com and search for Paul Brunton Philosophic Foundation to watch them. Be sure to "Subscribe" so that you will be alerted to the many additional videos we have planned.

Paul Brunton's Travels in India

Part 1: Meeting Sri Shankaracharya

Part 2: Ramana Maharshi (PB's first meeting)

Part 3: Ramana Maharshi (PB's mystic experiences)

Explore the Complete Archives with NEW Advanced Keyword and Topic Searches

Perhaps you would like to explore the complete Archives of Paul Brunton for images and videos of Paul Brunton, photos of Egypt, or temples in Asia? Or find out more about PB's interesting peers and acquaintances. Or maybe read everything that PB wrote about "grace" and explore his writings on the topic of "meditation, both beginning and advanced." Now, with the archive's updated advanced search functions, it is easier to find what interests you!

From the archives—

Day by Day with PB

For six months in 1979, near the end of PB's life, Ed McKeown was PB's secretary/assistant. Ed is a beautiful writer and has left us a moving, handwritten account of his time with PB.

“A Search for Paul Brunton” by Joscelyn Godwin

Joscelyn Godwin met with PB in Switzerland many times and has written a wonderfully illustrated, detailed overview of PB’s life and work. He delves into a number of little-known facts about PB’s early life as well as PB’s relationship to Anthony Damiani and the students at Wisdom’s Goldenrod, Center for Philosophic Studies.

Paul Brunton Philosophic Foundation, the Long View

Please consider a bequest to the PBPF in your will to ensure that PB’s writings will continue to inspire future generations. Our working Board is composed of volunteers, so 100% of your contributions is applied to projects that support the continuation of PB’s legacy.

Your interest in the Foundation’s work is deeply appreciated.

Tom Marino,
Board Chair and President

Can you help us with our many projects?

PaulBrunton.org/donations.php offers information on a number of projects that you could help us accomplish:

- ➡ The Digital Archive Project
- ➡ The Prison Project
- ➡ The publication of new books
- ➡ Keeping The Notebooks of Paul Brunton in print
- ➡ The Gift Book Project

The PBPF is registered as a 501-C-3 not-for-profit organization. All donations in the United States are tax exempt. You can read more about our projects here: paulbrunton.org/donations.php. Our Board Members and others volunteer their time to these projects. Thank you kindly for your support.
